

HORIZON 2020

The EU Framework programme for research and innovation

HTP Systems selected for the EU framework programme for research and innovation

Hita Technology of Plastic Systems is proud to be selected into the group of 78 European companies, and 12 Spanish only, like deserving of finance innovation activities and the development by the European commission throw to SME instrument Phase II program.

Our innovative project, HTPush, have been chosen into NMP25-2015 category, focused on technology materials and nanomaterials being the only Spanish project in this category.

We are also the unique Andalusian Company deserve such recognition and awarded with this European aid.

Our Project focuses on new development and materials research to change the construction methods, supporting technological innovation and material research also taking into account project and client offering products for fluid conduction make it totally in technical plastics materials. Giving to sector the chance to invest in technology and research resulting in faster, better and safer installations.

More info about The SME Instrument:

<https://ec.europa.eu/programmes/horizon2020/en/h2020-section/sme-instrument>

